

Supporting Welfare of Women at Sea

Wednesday 20th April 2023

14.00 to 15.15 GMT

Click here on the day to join the meeting

The Seafarers' Charity and the International Christian Maritime Association are inviting you to join a discussion about "Supporting Welfare of Women at Sea".

During the meeting Professor Helen Sampson will share the findings from the Seafarers International Research Centre's recent research on 'The Port-based Welfare Needs of Women Seafarers'. This will be followed by discussion between maritime welfare leaders and frontline maritime welfare staff on implications of the research on the delivery of port-based welfare services for women seafarers.

Agenda

- | | |
|-------|--|
| 14.00 | Welcome from Sara Baade
Chair, International Maritime Christian Association |
| 14.10 | The Port-based Welfare Needs of Women Seafarers
Professor Helen Sampson presents research findings
Seafarers International Research Centre, Cardiff University |
| 14.30 | The Role of Maritime Welfare Services in Supporting Women Seafarers
Sara Baade (Chair, ICMA) & Deborah Layde (CE, The Seafarers Charity)
Discussion on the implications of the research findings on the funding and development of port-based maritime welfare services |
| 14.40 | Supporting Women Seafarers on the Frontline
Ruth Campbell, Mission to Seafarers / QVSR
TBC, Stella Maris
Discussion amongst frontline staff about supporting women seafarers |
| 15.00 | Open Discussion for Meeting Attendees
Chaired by Sara Baade, ICMA |
| 15.15 | End |