Admiralty, 14th February, 1928.

His Majesty The KING has for some time been considering what steps can be taken to bring the British Merchant Navy and Fishing Fleets into line with the other great Services of the Empire, by having as their titular Head some Member of the Royal Family.

With this end in view, and in recognition of the splendid service which the Merchant Navy and Fishing Fleets have rendered to the Empire for many centuries, both in peace and in war, His Majesty, after taking ministerial advice, has asked H.R.H. the Prince of Wales to assume the title of "Master of the Merchant Navy and Fishing Fleets."
